California College and its Allied Schools

A Junior College Preparing For the Third Year in the Universities

The Academy

An accredited four-year course for both sexes. Laboratories, library, gymnasium, excellent faculty.

The Sub-Academy

Upper and lower forms, corresponding approximately to primary and grammar grades. Small classes, promotion by subject.

School of Fine Arts

Instruction in vocal and instrumental music and theory. Also departments of art and elocution. Courses may be taken in conjunction with work done in the other schools, if desired.

The School of Business

Offering all the advantages of a business college, together with the collegiate atmosphere and uplifting influences of the whole institution.

Four well-furnished dormitories, physical training in the gymnasium, Christian influences, a superb and convenient location and a carefully chosen corps of teachers combine to make these schools an ideal place for the training of young people.

Palace

Bakery and Restaurant

PETERSON & HESSE, Proprietors

1012 Washington Street, near Eleventh
471 Eleventh Street, near Washington
OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA

THE "Palace" was opened about seventeen years ago. The unequaled patronage that it has received during that time proves its merit. Each year the business of the Palace has increased so greatly that it well deserves the name it has attained, that of being "The Most Popular and Best Patronized Place" in Oakland.

For several years past, the original home of the Palace, at 1012 Washington St., has been entirely too small to accommodate its many patrons. Day after day hundreds of persons have been turned away from the Palace without being served, owing to the lack of seating facilities. For many months the proprietors, Peterson and Hesse, have been seeking some means of enlarging their seating capacity, and quite recently they secured the store at 471 Eleventh Street, which has been remodeled and altered to such an extent that it has been pronounced by many critics to be the neatest furnished and most inviting dining room on the Pacific Coast.

PETERSON & HESSE, Proprietors

1012 Washington Street, near Eleventh
471 Eleventh Street, near Washington
OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA

THE "Palace" was opened about seventeen years ago. The unequaled patronage that it has received during that time proves its merit. Each year the business of the Palace has increased so greatly that it well deserves the name it has attained, that of being "The Most Popular and Best Patronized Place" in Oakland.

For several years past, the original home of the Palace, at 1012 Washington St., has been entirely too small to accommodate its many patrons. Day after day hundreds of persons have been turned away from the Palace without being served, owing to the lack of seating facilities. For many months the proprietors, Peterson and Hesse, have been seeking some means of enlarging their seating capacity, and quite recently they secured the store at 471 Eleventh Street, which has been remodeled and altered to such an extent that it has been pronounced by many critics to be the neatest furnished and most inviting dining room on the Pacific Coast.

THE GREAT BUSINESS TRAINING SCHOOL OF THE WEST

A school of high standing and national reputation for high-grade work.
Universally recognized as the leading exponent of business and technical education in California.
The largest and best equipped school of its kind west of Chicago.
Has the finest building ever erected in the West for Business College work.
Indorsed by Oakland Board of Trade and by business men and educators throughout the West.
Courses of study most practical ever devised in any school of business training.
The POLYTECHNIC has five times more money invested in equipment than any other Business College in the West.

TAHITI

The land of bread fruit, cocoanuts and flowers. Clement Wragge, in "The Romance of the South Seas," says:

"Tahiti is the island of the gods! People don't know, they have no conception of the glories of these islands. The globe-trotter follows the beaten track and leaves this fascinating spot out. One should go not only for the short stay that the steamer remains in port, but stay over a steamer and become acquainted with the natives in their picturesque villages."

BOOK NOW FOR SAILING

S. S. MARIPOSA sails every 12 days. Reduced rate, $125.00 for round trip. Send for folder to 673 Market street.

Voyage, 36 days, each way. Telephone, Temporary 1231.

HONOLULU

For Your Vacation!

Only $125 Round Trip S. S. Alameda

This favorite steamer of the Oceanic Line sails every three weeks to Hawaii. Everyone should make this most delightful of trips. Book now and get the best accommodations. You will find a generous welcome in the islands. There's nothing that compares to it.

Sailings every 21 days. Telephone, Temporary 1231.
